

Condition
Stables must be kept in a clean condition in accordance with a documented procedure which must detail the routine daily cleaning regime and the procedure for cleaning between periods of occupation.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A documented system of recording observation for illness, injury or behavioural problems must be maintained.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Routine and documented treatment must be in place for internal and external parasites	<input type="checkbox"/>
Riders must use the correct Personal Protective Equipment for the activity e.g. hats, riding boots, gloves and body protectors as required. Riding hats must meet current safety standards and be worn at all times when mounted and any hats provided must be stored, clean and fit for purpose with clearly documented records of regular safety checks	<input type="checkbox"/>
Accommodation must be regularly inspected for damage and potential injury or escape points and the results of these inspections recorded. Damaged accommodation must be repaired or replaced immediately	<input type="checkbox"/>
Feed and (where appropriate) water intake must be monitored, and any problems recorded and addressed	<input type="checkbox"/>
The body condition of every horse must be monitored on a weekly basis with the use of a weight tape, scores should be recorded as part of a horses health plan	<input type="checkbox"/>
The behaviour of individual horses must be monitored daily and changes in behaviour and/or behaviours indicative of stress, fear, pain and anxiety must be recorded and acted upon	<input type="checkbox"/>
When a competent person suspects a horse of being ill or injured, a veterinarian must be contacted for advice immediately and any instructions for treatment recorded. Minor ailments can be dealt with by a competent person	<input type="checkbox"/>
Any medication given must be prescribed/recommended for the individual horse by a veterinarian, and each instance must be recorded	<input type="checkbox"/>
Records of POMs administered must be recorded in horse passports by the veterinarian or owner where required	<input type="checkbox"/>
All animals must be checked at least once daily and more regularly as necessary to check for any signs of pain, suffering, injury, disease or abnormal behaviour. Vulnerable animals must be checked more frequently. Any signs of pain, suffering, injury, disease or abnormal behaviour must be recorded and the advice and further advice (if necessary) of a Vet must be sought	<input type="checkbox"/>

If shod, their shoes must be properly fitted by a registered farrier. The frequency of trimming and shoeing for each individual horse must be recorded and available for inspection	<input type="checkbox"/>
The licence holder must provide and ensure the implementation of a written training policy for all staff	<input type="checkbox"/>
Written procedures must—  (a) be in place and implemented covering—  (i) feeding regimes,  (ii) cleaning regimes,  (iii) transportation,  (iv) the prevention and control of the spread of, disease,  (v) monitoring and ensuring the health and welfare of all the animals	<input type="checkbox"/>
A written emergency plan, acceptable to the local authority, must be in place, known and available to all the people on the premises used for the licensable activity, and followed where necessary to ensure appropriate steps are taken to protect all the people and animals on the premises in case of fire or in case of breakdowns for essential heating, ventilation and aeration or filtration systems or other emergencies	<input type="checkbox"/>
A plan/record of the type, quantity, frequency of food each horse receives must be kept	<input type="checkbox"/>
There must be a preventative healthcare plan in place agreed with the appointed veterinarian or appointed veterinary practitioner	<input type="checkbox"/>