For commemorative occasions and non-profit community groups, no fee is payable (examples are carnivals, Christmas, and primarily charitable events (4 or less traders))

Notes

- a) For charitable purposes, for example commemorative occasions, no fee is payable.
b) For events which are for private gain, the charge above will apply.
c) For events that are primarily charitable, but where, for example, market pitches are sold and the pitch users are only present for private gain, it would be expected in such circumstances that the organisers of the event will pay the minimum fee; however please contact the Licensing Department on 01935 462462 to discuss your individual application before submission.
